

Loud and Clear Qld

Inspiring Inclusive Communities Through Self Advocacy

Member Information

This is about becoming a member of Loud and Clear Qld and what you can expect.

It will tell you about your rights and responsibilities when you are member

Loud and Clear Qld meetings

Day: Wednesday afternoons every 3 weeks

Time: 2:30 until 4:30

Where: Contact coordinator for venue

A Parent to Parent Initiative

Loud and Clear Qld

Inspiring Inclusive Communities Through Self Advocacy

You can help at our Loud and Clear Qld meetings.

Every member has a role they can do.

Public Speaking:

You can help to do talks or presentations to people.

These could be large or small groups of people.

Be Inclusive:

You can teach people how to include people with intellectual disabilities.

Speak Up:

Be involved.

Ask for help if you need it.

Tell people your ideas.

Ask Questions.

Loud and Clear Qld

Inspiring Inclusive Communities Through Self Advocacy

Work Together:

Work with other members, helpers, and volunteers.

Be respectful of each other.

Support each other.

Listen:

Listen and follow instructions.

Listen to other members of the group.

Activities and Events

You can help at events.

These events can be workshops, information sessions, expos, groups, and conferences.

You might be able to travel to go to events.

Make forms and documents:

You can help to make Easy Read information.

A Parent to Parent Initiative

Loud and Clear Qld

Inspiring Inclusive Communities Through Self Advocacy

Loud and Clear Coordinator Contact Information

Phone

1800 777 723

Email: loudandclear@p2pqld.org.au

Post:

Loud and Clear Qld

PO Box 200

Woombye Qld 4559

